Established in 1936, the firm has provided legal counseling over decades to long-time as well as new clients. Its expertise encompasses mergers and acquisitions, corporate law, real estate, securities, banking, litigation, receivership and liquidation, local and international business transactions, hi-tech.

Weksler, Bregman & Co. is a full-service law firm specializing in corporate law, M&As, real estate, securities, banking, investments and commerce. The firm enjoys the loyal support of a diverse client base, including companies and public institutions it has represented since its establishment in 1936. Weksler, Bregman's team of approximately 40 attorneys has facilitated some of Israel's largest transactions in recent years.

Main Areas of Practice

General Corporate Representation; M&A: Weksler, Bregman counsels corporate clients on organizing business structures, including the establishment, financing, and representation of local and foreign corporations, partnerships and joint ventures; negotiation and consultation relating to asset and/or share purchase transactions; and on mergers and acquisitions. The firm also offers expertise in drafting technology licensing, marketing and distributorship agreements, as well as a variety of commercial agreements.

Real Estate: Weksler, Bregman has vast experience in commercial, residential and industrial real estate development, including overseas investments. The firm has been involved in a wide variety of projects, ranging from the construction of commercial centers, large residential areas and shopping malls, to hotels and other projects. The firm represents one of the leading investments and real estate groups in Israel, which engages in land development, construction, trade, hotels and tourism.

Securities and Investments: The firm offers broad expertise in the securities field and has extensive experience in handling public offerings, private placements and securitization. It has handled offerings by some of Israel's biggest corporations.

Banking: Weksler, Bregman renders a wide range of legal services to banking institutions in Israel, including counseling, negotiations, legal opinions, litigation, issuance of various types of governmental licences, and other related services.

Litigation: The firm represents clients in commercial litigation, arbitration and labor disputes. The firm supervises overseas litigation on behalf of Israeli clients and represents foreign clients in Israeli courts.

Liquidation and Receivership: Weksler, Bregman offers broad expertise in all matters relating to liquidation and receivership procedures and the firm's lawyers act from time to time as liquidators or receivers of companies, especially on behalf of commercial banks. Uri Bregman, the firm's senior partner, serves as Special Administrator of a Bank, which is in liquidation.

High-Tech: The firm represents a number of Israeli and international high-tech entrepreneurs, companies and venture funds, providing counseling on corporate securities, intellectual property, labor law and various technology and other business issues. It also assists venture capitalists and investors in conducting due diligence of potential investments, in negotiating and drafting agreements, handling the closing of the investment, transaction and post closing monitoring of the investment.

International: Weksler, Bregman represents international clients in public and private tenders, both in Israel and abroad; the firm negotiates and drafts joint venture and strategic agreements, sets up liaison, branch or subsidiary companies, as required, and retaining international counsel to assist in transactions where such assistance is necessary. It provides legal services to a number of Israeli, European, Japanese and Korean clients engaged in manufacturing, technology, real estate and telecommunications.

Community Commitment

The attorneys at Weksler, Bregman & Co. also serve the community by volunteering in an educational program on democracy and tolerance ("A Different Lesson").
